If you are looking for a company that can deliver a high-quality, reliable inspection report and excellent customer service, look no further.

If you are looking for the cheapest quote, please consider the following issues before making your final decision:

- Who checks the inspector's report? We check all our reports and know that even the best inspectors make mistakes.
- Cheaper often means poorer quality as the only way for the inspector to stay afloat is to do as many inspections per day as possible.
- What about customer service? Will the inspector answer your questions or brush you off due to lack of time?
